

QUALITIES OF A GREAT TEACHER CADET INSTRUCTOR

REQUIREMENTS: Current Colorado Teacher's License
Master's Degree in an educational area
Three years teaching experience
CDE Professional License
Completion of Teacher Cadet Training

Communicating Effectively with Others

The instructor will find this especially important when working with Teacher Cadets, their cooperating teachers, building administrators, college partners, and members in the community who are affiliated with education.

Being Informed on the Latest Educational Issues

The instructor encourages Teacher Cadets to discuss, analyze, and apply the latest trends in the education profession.

Maintaining Good Records and Documentation

The instructor keeps detailed records on the Teacher Cadets' assessed papers, products, and portfolios. The instructor displays Teacher Cadet work throughout the classroom and school building.

Using Differentiated Instructional Methods

The instructor realizes that there are many different learning styles and makes accommodations for the learners in the classroom. With the assistance of a teacher-oriented Teacher Cadet curriculum, the instructor models a wide variety of instructional methods.

Expecting High Levels of Achievement from Students

The instructor sets a high standard for himself and students. He/She is an advocate and supporter of educational careers. It is preferred that the Teacher Cadet instructor have three or more years of teaching experience.

Making Purposeful Decisions about His/Her Teaching

The instructor knows what to do to help those who are struggling with the content. He/She makes use of effective pacing, instructional strategies, resources, and motivational techniques to enable Teacher Cadets to be successful in this course.

Striving to be a Positive Role Model

The instructor provides all students with an example of good character and outstanding professional qualities.

Having a Genuine Desire to Teach this Course

The instructor has a sincere interest in working with high school students who want to learn more about human growth and development as well as educational issues pertaining to schools and teachers. He/She welcomes the opportunity to make a positive difference as a teacher-leader in this instructional role.

Encouraging the Best and Brightest Students to Become Teachers

The instructor will help ensure that this course will serve as a basis for information and inspiration for outstanding students to choose to teach for their profession.

 Please be aware that the South Carolina curriculum license requires that the license follows the teacher, not the school. If a Teacher Cadet teacher retires or leaves the school, the new teacher will have to complete the Teacher Cadet New Teacher training.

Course registration deadlines are firm, curriculums must be ordered from South Carolina CERRA. They have a notice requirement for curriculum training and copies.
